TUESDAY..... SEPT. 14, 1858

The City.

We scarcely need remind our readers that the large sale of fashionable fancy jewelry will come off this morning (Tuesday) at 10 o'clock, at auction rooms of Messrs. S. G. Henry & Co. We are authorized to say that this is an entire new stock, just received direct from the manufacturers, and well worth the attention of the trade; and that it will be sold in liberal lots. There will also be added to the sale, 200 dozen cases, pocket books, and fine and extra fine portmonees, received by express yesterday.

Capt. A. C. Harig sent to the St. Louis Fair one of his combination locks, but it arrived too late to be entered for competition. It excited a great deal of remark, however; and one of the judges stated that, had it arrived in time, it would have received the premium.

ACCIDENT.—Yesterday, about 11 o'clock, as a lot of 12 or 14 laborers were engaged in digging sand in a pit near the Spring Brewery, on the canal bank, one side of the pit caved in on them. One man, John Hines, was crushed under the falling mass, and one of his legs was broken above the knee. It is supposed amputation will be necessary to save his life. The others escaped without injury.

THEATER.—Mr. Murdoch was greeted by a full, though not crowded, house. The School for Scandal was not the play to draw a crowd. Mr. C. Charles Surface was a picture, such as we seldom see in these days—true to the author's conception: This evening we have him.

A FRIEND.—Caroline Van Dusen, who killed the newly-born infant of Mrs. Jane Howard, with whom she lived, at Troy, three years since, has been arrested at a New York den of prostitution, and taken to Troy. It is alleged that Caroline entered the room, and, snatching the child from the cradle, dashed its brains out upon the floor, after which she escaped. According to the Troy Times, this woman has since been tried for causing the death of her own mother by personal violence. She has been very good looking, and is very dangerous.

MECHANIC'S INSTITUTE.—The fair of the Mechanic's Institute will open this evening in the Exhibition Building, corner of Fourth street and Broadway. The opening address will be delivered by T. S. Phillips, Esq.

We learn that nearly all the space for exhibitors has been engaged; if there are any intending to exhibit who have not yet selected space, they had better make haste, or they will find themselves ruled out.

TROTTING DAY AT THE SOUTH-WESTERN FAIR GROUNDS.—This comes on Monday, the 25th instant, the day before the commencement of the Kentucky State Fair. The track is now in complete order, and the gate on the Brownsville road, as well as that on the turnpike, has been ordered by the President to be opened for the admission of persons who wish to practice their horses before the day of the trial.

A great deal of curiosity was evinced yesterday by persons in the neighborhood of Court place to see some stones split by the workmen at the Court house.

We call attention to the law card of William W. & Solly Harney in another column. They are now prepared to make collections in the south and west, through their agents, without any additional expense to their clients.

The contested election case will be tried in the county court room on Thursday next before Judge Monroe, Charles Thruston, and Seize Lynn.

The Chinese Jugglers will give their second performance this evening, in Masonic Temple.

A couple of gentlemen had a slight difficulty in front of the Neale House, on Sunday. No particular damage done.

Nothing exciting in the city.

There had not been a single arrest up to 7 o'clock last evening.
